When a liaison has an interest in a transaction being considered by the organization, the liaison should disclose that conflict as early as possible and at least before the State Board or staff member takes action on the matter. Any liaison having a conflict of interest will not vote or use his or her personal influence on the matter and will not be present when the matter is discussed by the Board. The minutes of the meeting will reflect that a disclosure was made and the abstention from voting will be noted.
